What is this product?

Type This is an investment fund established as an Irish Collective Asset-Management Vehicle (ICAV).

Investment objective To achieve long-term capital growth.

Investment policies The Fund will seek to achieve its objective by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of equities or equity-related securities (such as preferred stock, American Depositary Receipts ("ADRs") or Global Depositary Receipts ("GDRs") issued by companies which are listed or traded on a stock exchange or regulated market.

There are no industrial sector, geographic or other market sector investment restrictions applicable to the Fund.

The primary, but not exclusive, investment focus is the investment in shares of companies listed on pan-European stock exchanges or in shares of companies with a significant portion of their business in Europe.

The Fund may hold significant cash or cash equivalents, rather than investing such assets, to mitigate potential negative market conditions and where the Investment manager considers it appropriate.

The Fund may hold assets denominated in different currencies to the base currency and shall not hedge the risk of loss in the value of the Fund's holdings caused by foreign exchange movements using FDIs. Exposure to currency fluctuations can significantly influence returns.

As the Fund may have a high exposure to net equities, the Fund is intended for investors who accept exposure to movements in world markets. The Fund is suitable for investors who seek capital growth, who are comfortable with a long-term investment horizon and understand the risks associated with investing in the financial markets.

For more information about the investment policies and strategies please refer to the section entitled "Investment Policy" in the Supplement of the Fund.

Benchmark The Fund will be actively managed and will not be constrained by a benchmark. The Investment Manager will have discretion in the choice of investments, within the limits of the Fund's investment policy.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risks

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact the capacity of the Fund to pay you.

Be aware of currency risk. In some circumstances, you may receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get may depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Performance scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, and includes the costs of your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product and suitable benchmark over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

What happens if the Fund is unable to pay out?

If we are not able to pay you out what we owe you, you are not covered by any national compensation scheme. To protect you, the assets are held with a separate company, a depository. Should we default, the depository would liquidate the investments and distribute the proceeds to the investors. In the worst case, however, you could lose your entire investment.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.
